INSTEAD OF WALLS
»As a human rights activist, it is imperative to have a universal human rights logo for it talks more than a thousand words. It is easier to be interpreted by everybody irrespective of educational status, race, colour, age, sex, religion and geographical location.«

Angelina Atyam, Human Rights Defender